

Regan Has Praise for Two-Party System Here

The two-party system in California was praised Sunday by Ronald Reagan, Republican gubernatorial candidate, at a rally in San Pedro.

"We want the Democrats and the Republicans. The state of California needs the two-party system," Reagan said.

Reagan addressed a gathering at the Ports O' Call Restaurant, following his speech at the Fishermen's Fiesta.

HE URGED informed Democrats to regain control of their party and not to let ones in power lose the party for them.

"The only way the good Democrats can regain control of their party is to change the gang in Sacramento," he said.

Because of the primary system, requiring voters to cast ballots in one party, some people actually are not aware they can vote for either party's candidate in the general election, Reagan said.

"URGE YOUR Democrat friends to get out and vote, and be sure they know they can vote for us," he said.

Careful advance study of the sample ballot was urged by Robert Finch, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, who appeared with Reagan at the rally.

"Too many people wait until they enter the voting booth to read and study the ballot."

"MANY VOTERS never have completed an entire ballot because they don't know what some of the issues are," Finch said.

He urged every voter to sit down early and go over every name and proposition on the sample ballot.

"Know how you will vote, so you can tell people how and why you will vote that way," Finch said.

APPEARING at the rally with the two top-office candidates was Spencer Williams, Republican nominee for attorney general.

"Crime prevention and law enforcement are not partisan issues. They are matters of individual importance for everyone," Williams said.

Work Set On Area Crossings

County supervisors have approved an agreement with the Southern Pacific Company for construction of Del Amo Boulevard and the widening of Wilmington Avenue at the crossings at the South Board Chairman Burton W. Chace said today.

The work at the Del Amo Boulevard crossing, which will be performed by the railroad at county's expense, will include the installation of four flashing light signals.

"The lights will be supplemented with automatic gates, track reconstruction, and paving in the track area. At the Wilmington Avenue crossing, the county will pay the railroad to relocate a flashing light signal. The total estimated cost to the county is $25,875," Chace said.

The work is being done in connection with the County Road Department's program project for the construction and improvement of the 2.5 mile section of Del Amo Boulevard between Avenida Boulevard and Alameda Street.

The proposed over-all improvement consists of con-

Well, by now everyone should have gotten over the picture that will represent them on their ID cards. It's funny how they never seem to turn out the way you'd like, isn't it? (or is it sad?)

If any of you are having problems in one (or maybe all) of your classes never fear — CSF is here. CSF members have signed up to tutor students in their problem subject before and after school. Monika Shubert is in charge of assigning tutors to tutorees so she's the person to see if you would like arrangements made.

South Street Dedicated by Student Body

An alley which runs behind a shopping center from Calle Mayor to the South High School gymnasium has been named "South Street" by students at the high school.

Dr. John A. Lucas, principal, and Mike Lewis, student body president, dedicated South Street during special ceremonies last Friday.

Students plan to dress the street with green and white banners on football nights.

Our golden anniversary in the golden west

October 16, 1916... the first "heat" of steel was produced in one of two small open hearth furnaces at Torrance Works of United States Steel Corporation. And U.S. Steel became the second major industry to begin operating in Torrance.

Today—fifty years and millions of tons of steel later—we can look back with pride at the accomplishments of Torrance Works. We've produced the highest quality steel during peacetime and wartime. Steel for schools, hospitals, bridges, office buildings and countless landmarks. And we've played an important part in the rapid growth, development and prosperity of the West.

But as proud as we are of these contributions to the past, our eyes are on the future. With the aid of U.S. Steel's vast research facilities, new machinery and advanced technology, Torrance Works will continue producing the highest quality steel at a competitive price. And, in doing so, will remain a leading supplier of steel in the West.

Two examples of new developments at Torrance Works are a completely renovated 12-inch merchant mill that produces a wide range of bar products required by West Coast markets. And a modern four-strand continuous casting facility—first of its kind at U.S. Steel—will soon be installed for the production of blooms and billets. If our anniversary pride is showing, it is for our customers and former and active employees. These are the people who made our fifty years of growth in Torrance possible. To all of these people go our sincerest thanks.
